The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 6. to Saturday October 10. 1713.

Windsor, October 9.

THE following Addreſs from the Council of Barbadoes, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's Council and general Aſſembly of Barbadoes.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects do moſt cordially and devoutly acknowledge the inexpreſſible Goodneſs of Almighty God to us, and all Your Majeſty's Subjects, in having ſo eminently ſupported Your Sacred Majeſty againſt all Your Enemies, in having bleſſed Your Arms with ſo many glorious and ſurpriſing Victories, and in having (at laſt) enabled Your Sacred Majeſty to ſurmount thoſe Potent Obſtacles, which would have deprived not only Your Majeſty of the Satisfaction and Happineſs of putting a ſpeedy End to a long, bloody and inſupportable War, but alſo Us and the reſt of Your dutiful Subjects, of the immenſe Benefits that will moſt undoubtedly ſpring from thoſe great Acceſſions of Dominion and Trade, which Your Majeſty (by GOD's Aſſiſtance, and the great Prudence and Dexterity of Your Miniſtry) hath ſo happily obtained.

We, Madam, already feel the Advantage and good Effects of Peace: Our Credit revives, our Trade increaſes, and the juſt Fears and Apprehenſions of daily Ruin, which the Accidents and Events of War render'd us ſo highly obnoxious to, are now Extinct.

We therefore, with the greateſt tranſports of Joy, humbly lay hold of this opportunity to Congratulate Your Sacred Majeſty, in having given ſuch a Peace (to thoſe that were Your Enemies) as is ſo glorious to Your Self, ſo Juſt to Your Allies, and ſo highly Advantageous to all Your People.

We alſo moſt unfeignedly Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the happy Underſtanding and Friendſhip that is between Your Sacred Majeſty, and the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

This, May it pleaſe Your Majeſty, we humbly conceive is of ſuch great Conſequence, not only to Us, our Poſterity, and to all Your Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects, but even to all People of the Proteſtant Religion, that we ſhall inceſſantly implore the Divine Providence to Cultivate and Preſerve it.

As we are eternally bound to Your Sacred Majeſty by theſe and other high Obligations, ſo we humbly preſume to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will ſeek (with the utmoſt alacrity) all Opportunities of manifeſting our Gratitude, and all Occaſions of ſhewing that we are, and will always be, Your Majeſty's moſt grateful and loyal Subjects, and moſt dutiful and obedient Servants.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Vienna, Sept. 27. N. S. Tho' the Weather has been very fair for ſome time, we don't yet perceive any abatement of the contagious Diſtemper, which has already carried off ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction. Their Imperial Majeſty's continue in very good Health in the Country, where they go out a Hunting almoſt every Day. No body is allow'd to go to Court without a Ticket from the Great Mareſchal, and all other Precautions are taken to keep the Infection at a diſtance from the Place of their Majeſties Reſidence. The Emperor has conferred the Command of the Regiment that became vacant by the Death of Baron Nehem, upon the Count de Bonneval, who quitted the Service of France ſome Years ago. Monſieur Matueof, the Muſcovite Plenipotentiary, is appointed by the Czar to go Ambaſſador to King Auguſtus, and he is preparing accordingly to ſet out for that Court. We have receiv'd advice, that the Count de Caſtelbarco, Governor of the Dutchy of Mantua, and the Emperor's Commiſſary in Italy, is lately dead of a Fever.

Turin, Sept. 23. N. S. On the 21ſt, the Princes de Villa Franca and de Rocca Fiorita, Deputies from the Kingdom of Sicily, arriv'd from thence. The ſame Day the Marquis d'Angrogne, Maſter of the Ceremonies, gave Notice to all the Colleges and Courts of Juſtice, that the next Morning his Royal Highneſs would receive their Compliments upon his Acceſſion to the Crown of Sicily. An Order was likewiſe publiſh'd by the Magiſtrates of this City, for all Perſons to keep their Shops ſhut three Days, to illuminate their Houſes, and ſhew all other Demonſtrations of Joy upon this occaſion. Yeſterday the Nobility kiſſed the New King's Hand in his Bedchamber, after which his Majeſty aſcended a Throne that was erected in the Preſence Chamber; and the Princes of the Blood being placed on each ſide of him under a Canopy, with their Heads covered, the Great Chancellor was introduced at the Head of the Counſellors. The Preſident d'Ardiſſon, with the Senate of the City, the Preſident de Mellarede, with the Chamber of Accounts, and the Magiſtrates, were ſeverally admitted to Audiences, and kiſſed the King's Hand. The ſame Ceremonies were afterwards obſerved towards the Queen, and the Court was very numerous and magnificent. This Day Te Deum was Sung, and in the Evening there is to be a Firework. The Queen intends to ſet out on the 25th, and the King will follow her in a Day or two. The Prince de Carignan, who has a Houſe at Bakonis, has made great Preparations to entertain their Majeſties in their way. The King has appointed a Council of Seven Noblemen, to adviſe the Prince of Piedmont in all Matters relating to our Government during his Majeſty's abſence. The Marquis del Bourg, who reſided lately at the Hague, is appointed to be Governor of Caſal and Montferrat, and Count Rubilapt to be Indendant-General of Savoy. Letters from Genoa bring an account, that the King of Spain's Miniſter having complained to the Senate that Succours were ſent from that City to the Catalans, the Republick had publiſh'd a Prohibition of all Commerce with the County of Catalonia, under very ſevere Penalties, for which he had given them Thanks in his Maſter's Name.

Utrecht, October 13. N. S. On the 9th, the Duke d'Oſſuna, Plenipotentiary of his Catholick Majeſty, began to celebrate the Birth of the young Prince Don Ferdinando, with ſeveral ſorts of Entertainments, which laſted three Days ſucceſſively. His Excel-